

Horizontal writing lines on the left side of the page.

A grid area on the right side of the page, consisting of a 16x16 square grid.

A large grid area for writing or drawing. The grid consists of 20 columns and 20 rows. The first two columns are wider than the others, and the first two rows are taller than the others, creating a header space for a title or drawing. The remaining 18 columns and 18 rows form a standard grid.